

Intellectual Property Rights Workshop organised by CWEI and Delhi Police

News & Updates • December 19, 2017

Consortium of Women Entrepreneurs of India and Delhi Police organise Intellectual Property Rights workshop for police officers. Manish Biala was invited to the workshop to speak about IPR enforcement, specifically the real world tools available to police officers for checking IP infringement. Read more about the Ministry of Home Affairs' direction to police academies around India to include IPR training modules for police officers. [gallery type="slideshow" size="medium" link="none" ids="2957,2958,2959"]

