

Patent Prosecution Process Made easier

News & Updates • April 10, 2018

Based on the comments provided by Anand and Anand Patent Prosecution team, the process of holding hearings saw a welcome move in the form of installation of video conference facility at the patent office and at the agent's respective offices which will readily bring down the time and energy spent in travelling to the patent office.

