

Update from the AIPPI World Congress 2019

News & Updates • September 20, 2019

The International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property, known as AIPPI (Association Internationale pour la Protection de la Propriété Intellectuelle), is an International Organization dedicated to the development and improvement of laws for the protection of intellectual property. The AIPPI World Congress was held in London from 15th - 18th September 2019. Vidisha Garg was a part of the panel discussion on 'Post-grant amendments flexibility or certainty?' at the event. She was joined by other esteemed panellists including Brian Cordery, Barbara Fiacco, Koen Bijvank and Chuanhong Long for the panel discussion.

