National Conference on Intellectual Property Rights

News & Updates • December 20, 2016

A National Conference on Intellectual Property Rights, organised by the Department of Industry Policy and Promotion, PHD Chamber and University of Delhi, brought together professionals from law and order, government and the legal fraternity. The event was dedicated to discussing evolving IPR trends and the means most effective for protecting and enforcing intellectual property rights. Chairing a talk on IP infringement and enforcement, Pravin Anand discussed anti-piracy, anti-counterfeiting and IP enforcement practices in industry. Shantanu Sahay spoke about IP in the digital domain, covering topics such web piracy, copyright and the smartphone business.
