

Protecting images, shapes, colours as trade marks in Asia

Thought Leadership • August 4, 2017

In light of the registration of the facade of the Taj Mahal Palace hotel in Mumbai, Asialaw talks about the registration of unconventional marks, particularly architectural work, across various Asian jurisdictions. Read what Pravin Anand and practitioners from around the world have to say on Asialaw. Read more about the registration of the Taj Mahal Palace hotel as an image mark.

