

Overview

Commercial agreements must leverage the full value of intellectual property, yet ensure clear-cut boundaries between what is and what is not permissible; these should anticipate the contingency of dispute and envisage quick and decisive resolution.

Law of contracts in India is governed by the Indian Contract Act, however laws pertaining to transfer of property, specific relief and employment will also significantly affect how an agreement is drafted. Provisions relating to registration, consumer protection, competition law, sale of goods, foreign exchange laws and taxation must also be taken cognisance of in a commercial transaction.
