Safir Anand speaks at EEMAGINE X 2018

News & Updates • May 10, 2018

Safir Anand was a speaker at the EEMAGINE X in Jaipur, organized by EEMA (Event and Entertainment Management Association), which seeks to bring together the country's leading Event Management and diverse professionals on the same platform. Safir uncovered the concepts of "IP Survival Theory" addressing several IP issues specific to the Events Industry. The talk was followed by an interactive session of our lawyers with the Industry members conducted by Safir Anand and Twinky Rampal.
