

Patent Agent Examination results announced, nine of our team members qualify

News & Updates • January 25, 2019

Patent Agent Examination results are announced and we are proud to announce that nine of our young team members have qualified with flying colours. We would like to extend our heartiest congratulations on their achievements and wish them all the best for this added legal qualification to go with their technical skills.

