First of its kind – A session on customs by CIPAM

News & Updates • February 20, 2019

In one of its firsts, Cell for IPR Promotion and Management (CIPAM) conducted its first ever Customs training in collaboration with Anand and Anand. Manish Biala conducted the training on 18th February at the New Customs House, Ballard Estate, Mumbai and delivered a session on 'Roles & powers of customs'. As tweeted by CIPAM, "He highlighted the importance of customs officials in the enforcement of IPR rules & laws with the help of case studies. He also spoke about various enforcement notifications issued in this respect." Here are the glimpses of the training.
