India Business Law Journal- A list Lawyers 2019

News & Updates • November 23, 2019

We feel proud to share that our leaders, Pravin Anand and Safir Anand, have been featured in the fourth annual edition of the A-List released by the India Business Law Journal. Pravin Anand has been ranked among India's top 35 legal icons for having set several IP precedents in courts in matters related to Litigation and Dispute Resolution, and being a distinguished achiever in a career spanning over several decades. Safir Anand has secured one of the most coveted positions among India's top 100 most outstanding lawyers for his astute advisory on strategy, business models, marketing and commercial insight and his innovative approach and extraordinary contribution in Trademarks, Contractual and Commercial IP. The A-List is an exclusive record that identifies the lawyers who in the eyes of the market have had exemplary performance and received several accolades from clients and international peers for not only their skills in particular areas of law, but also their attention to detail, trustworthiness and entrepreneurial approach to working with clients.
