Benchmark Litigation Asia Pacific 2021 – Shortlist Released

The shortlist for the 7th annual Benchmark Litigation Asia Pacific 2021 awards have been announced.

Anand and Anand has been shortlisted in the “Intellectual Property Law Firm of the Year” category across the entire Asia-Pacific region.

Our Managing Partner, Pravin Anand, has been shortlisted for the Lawyer of the Year award for India.

While speaking of Anand and Anand in their Asia Pacific review, Benchmark Litigation says,

"As an intellectual property powerhouse, Anand and Anand needs no introduction. The firm is unanimously praised by the market across all practice and sectors as having the top IP litigators, particularly on the patent side. It routinely features in landmark decisions and its contentious-focused lawyers are highly sought after for novel, high-stakes and complex IP cases. The firm is a trusted name not just for court litigation, but also through mediation, arbitration, and other alternative dispute resolution method."

The virtual award ceremony is scheduled for May 27.
